

Andrew Lim, President-World Guppy Association, President –Malaysia Guppy Club, Asia Pacific Director-International Guppy Education & Exhibition Society, Malaysia

“From Drain to Glory III~ Knowing the genetics of guppy for your own creation and a tour of fishrooms from famous breeders across the globe”

Andrew Lim serves as the Immediate Past President of World Guppy Association, the Preident of Malaysia Guppy Club and also the Asia Pacific Director of International Guppy Education & Exhibition Society.

Lim has also organised the largest guppy competition in Asia, the World Guppy Contest in 2013 in Kuala Lumpur, with more than 700 pairs of entries and participants from over 20 countries. And he is also actively participating in major aquatic exhibitions with his public seminars and judging courses.

Lim has been actively involves in the International guppy scene from 2003 and has judged more than 25 guppy competition worldwide . Also has won more than 30 awards from guppy competition Internationally, Lim is now a guppy enthusiast which focus on developing new strain of guppy and working on his new book about Poecilia reticulata.

